As the market for e-Waste collection continues to grow, so does our exclusive line of collection containers. Purpose-designed specifically for the collection of e-Waste, our e-Waste line of collection carts and consoles have been manufactured with the same quality and security as our proven line of document protection containers. Why take a chance with your media security? Whether it be hard drives, cd's or any type of media, Jake, Connor & Crew has the solution within our e-Waste collection line. Backed by the strongest warranty on the market, no container performs better for you and your customer.
